INTERNATIONAL STABILITY OPERATIONS ASSOCIATION

Associate Membership Application

ISOA welcomes applications from ethical and professional individuals and organizations from around the world that provide services in conflict, post-conflict and disaster relief operations. Membership in the Association is by no means automatic. Due to the unique ethical nature of the association, the ISOA Membership Committee reviews all applications prior to deciding on acceptance.

1

Associate Membership Standards

- Agree to uphold to the ISOA Code of Conduct.
- The Membership Committee will review all incoming Members on an annual basis and may object to the addition of a specific applicant. If a member of the Membership Committee raises an objection, then the membership will be put to a vote of the entire Membership Committee. If a two thirds majority of the Membership Committee rejects the membership, the Individual will not be admitted and any membership dues collected will be returned.

Associate Membership Benefits

- Members will be invited to all monthoy mixers and open networking events free of charge.
- Members will receive member rates to the Summit.
- Members will benefit from industry advocacy.
- Members may elect to advertise their services and job opening on our website for a fee.

3

Membership Restrictions

- Associate members may not participate in ISOA committees and working groups, or serve on the BOD.
- The brand of associate members is not endorsed or promoted by ISOA and Associate members may not use the ISOA brand to claim international standards compliance or good business practices.
- ISOA reserves the right to refuse or remove any Individual Member at any time.
- Member dues tiers will be reviewed annually based on member revenues declared to the IRS.

Associate Members must provide the name of an ISOA Company that will provide a brand endorsement for the associate. Please provide the name and contact information of your reference here:
